ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This research study succeeded because of the involvements and great supports from 20 small and medium enterprises in Bangkok and the vicinity as well as 50 samples of small enterprises that provided significant inputs. A sincere appreciation is given to these entities.

The researcher must gratefully acknowledge the helpful and critical efforts of Dr. Tirapot Chandarasupasang and Asst. Prof. Dr. Nopasit Chakpitak, who consistently provide advice and guidance leading to the solutions to all obstacles during the process of conducting this research. The researcher is thankful for all the supports and kindness from the two key advisors from the inception to the completion of the study.

The deepest gratitude is given to the researcher's parents as well as all members in the family who have built the foundation of life, thoughts, confidence, and helpful encouragement which contributes to a success.

The researcher should also mention with gratitude the always insightful bodies of knowledge and experiences provided by all teachers. Likewise, it is the researcher's good fortune to have benefitted from several colleagues, friends, and related people who not only make this research possible but enjoyable.
